MAKING GAMBLERS OF EL PASOANS SELLING TIPS ON THE RACES

The vendors of the "sure tips" on the races, the author of which "does as business by mail," are carrying on an active selling campaign on the streets and especially on the race track street cars. The tip sellers work the cars coming and going.

One of the peddlers of "scientific information gathered at the race track" boards the race track car at the transfer corner and canvasses the car for prospective buyers.

To prove the "reliability" of these tips, the agents show the previous day's tips with circles drawn around the winners that were picked, if any.

These cards are also posted in the saloons and cigar stores for the advertisement of the tipsters.

When the cars return from the races these same agents hop them and display with no little pride the horses that were picked to win and did win.

When the tipsters fail to pick the winners, which is often the case, they succeed, no cards are displayed until he has a lucky day. These tips are sold for good American coin and the advice contained on the cards is played at the track by the tipsters.

Boys and men are said to be buying them and getting their first initiation into racetrack gambling as a result of these "tips."

BIG FIGHT WILL TAKE PLACE IN SAN FRANCISCO, IT NOW APPEARS

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 11.—At last the cat is out. The big Jeffries-Johnson mill is to be fought in San Francisco, or near enough for all of the 'Frisco sports to reach the ringside on a street car. All the stalling about Salt Lake, Bly and other towns getting the big fight is a bluff.

San Francisco is the logical place for holding the big scrap and the application of Jack Gleason for a permit to hold a 45 round fight in or near San Francisco is the first step in the arrangements for the championship battle. The laws of San Mateo county do not permit fights to go past 20 rounds but the petition of Gleason for an extension of this limit to 45 rounds has been referred to the police committee. Gleason stated Monday that the fight would not be held in Utah, Nevada or elsewhere, but would be held in San Francisco, he submitted. Jack says that as soon as his application for an extension of the permit is acted upon plans would be drawn for the arena, which will shelter the two big fellows in their fight. "The fight will be held in San Francisco," Gleason said. "I do not know what action the supervisors will take on my proposition, but whatever it is, the fight will come off here."

HOPPE GETS MATCH

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 11.—Willie Hoppe, the boy billiardist, and Ora Morningstar have been matched for a billiard contest at 15.2 ball line billiards here on February 2, 3 and 4. Each player has posted a forfeit of $250 for the match, and it is understood that the winner of this contest will play Calvin Demarest for the championship.

BIG LEAGUE PITCHER VISITS THE CITY

Harry McIntyre Can Bowl as Well as He Can Pitch, Which Is Some.

Harry McIntyre, Brooklyn's best pitcher last season, is in El Paso. Hearing of the fine climate here, Harry decided to spend several weeks in the southwest away from the Brooklyn brand of fog and he arrived Monday for a month's visit in El Paso and other parts of the cactus country. Harry as a pitcher is some few. As a bowler he is as much plus some more. Last night he went up to the Y. M. C. A. where the memory of one Christy Mathewson and his checker playing was still fresh, and he "rolled 'em down the other alley, pally," until the pin boys had paralysis in their arms setting up pins.

While here McIntyre has found an affinity. It is Jockey McIntyre, who is riding at the Juarez track. Harry stands about six feet in uniform, while Jockey McIntyre rides at about 77 pounds. Both wear the latest in the glad clothes line and they have become real chums since they met each other in the lobby of the Sheldon last night.

Bowling is Mr. McIntyre's hobby, every ball player having one or more hobbies aside from his ball playing. He bowls for the fun of the game and to forget the slow ones over the left corner and the high ones around the batter's neck. He is also a bug on boxing and follows the fighters with the eye of an expert. Harry picks Jeffries to win from the ding without any trouble, using the old and very logical argument that Jeffries is the one man to know whether he can whip Johnson and, since he has agreed to undertake the job, it is a one best bet that he can complete the contract, McIntyre says.

The Brooklyn pitcher is a big, healthy out of door chap with a clear eye and a quiet manner after the style of the modern ball player. Being sewed up in a contract to Brooklyn, he does not know yet what his immediate future will be. "I may be traded, retained or sold by Brooklyn," he says. "It all depends upon the outcome of the meeting in New York as to which of the National league teams I play with next season." Judging from his record of last year, the man from Babybuggyville is due to make a name and good wherever he goes for he has the goods in his

EL PASO MAY SEND DELEGATES TO THE AMERICAN BOWLING CONGRESS

Now that El Paso is in the American Bowling congress with two associations, the local bowlers are discussing the advisability of sending a representative from El Paso to the Bowling congress, which is to be held in Detroit on February 26. A number of the local bowlers could be depended upon to make a good showing at the national meeting of the bowlers and it would advertise this city in all parts of the country, as El Paso would be the first southwestern city to send a representative to the congress. Several of the best bowlers in the Y. M. C. A. and Tivoli leagues have been mentioned as prospective delegates to the congress and the player will be selected by an elimination tournament here in case it is decided to send a bowler to Detroit.

A farewell bowling tournament is being planned at Fort Bliss by the bowlers of the 19th. The troops leave on the 21st for the coast, to see for the Philippines, and this tournament will be the last opportunity the local bowlers will have to meet the soldiers in friendly competition. The tournament is to be a free for all and will consist of individual contests and two and five men team contests. An entry fee of $1.00 will be charged to meet the expenses of the pin boys and also to purchase prizes for the winners in the different contests.

All of the bowlers in El Paso have been invited to enter the tournament and an invitation has been extended to the members of both bowling associations to enter.

The tournament will open Friday evening and will continue during the week and next week until the schedule is completed.

GAME POSTPONED

Falling to appear for the Monday night game at the Y. M. C. A. last night, the scheduled game between the Business Men and Independents was postponed until tonight, when it will be played as one of a double header game, the second game to be between the Zephyrs and the Nationals. Harry McIntyre, the Brooklyn pitcher, played a series of match games on the association alleys and his bowling was the center of attraction during the games.

AUSTIN IS BARED FROM TEXAS LEAGUE

Five Cities Vote Against the Capital City—Franchise Holders Insist on Waco Keeping Its Franchise.

Fort Worth, Tex., Jan. 11.—The result of the vote over the admission of Austin, taken by the owners of the franchises in the Texas baseball league was announced here today and it blocks Austin from entering the league this year. Five cities voted against Austin entering, including Dallas, Houston, Fort Worth, San Antonio and Oklahoma City. Waco, alone, voted for Austin. Shreveport and Galveston did not vote. The league owners say they are determined that the franchise remain in Waco if the owners of the Waco franchise insist on holding to Austin it will revert back to the league by default, in which case it will be kept at Waco.

EL PASO HAS A RAINSTORM
Precipitation Is Light But It Is a Rain, Just the Same.

A little matter of four hundredths of an inch of rain would hardly be noticed in the rainfall country. It would be an incident back there but in El Paso, where it seldom rains either on the just or unjust, even the smallest quantity of sky juice is an event.

As an atmospheric chaser for the recent climatic high ball, a little home talent rain storm blew up about 10 o'clock this morning and chased the down towers to cover while it sprinkled the city with about as much moisture as a Chinaman aquirts onto his wash before ironing it.

The rain storm, like the lamented municipal ownership election, was purely a local affair. It did not rain in New Mexico, neither did it rain in Arizona, according to the weather reports. Unsettled weather is reported for Wednesday with a bare possibility of another impromptu shower.

Later—it's raining again. Later—it has stopped.

"DAT MONKEY SHO" IS FOLKS," SAYS NEGRESS.

A fat negro woman waddled into the Wigwag theater last night while the film was being shown which pictures the grotesque antics of "Consul," the missing link monkey that is now making such a hit in vaudeville. The old negroes watched the antics of the monkey, as they were shown on the white curtain of the canned drama theater with the interest of a mother cat watching her litter of kittens at play.

"Consul" skated across the sheet, smoked a pipe in the foreground, ate with his fork and picked his teeth with a real toothpick until the audience was in an uproar of laughter. Not so the old auntie. She never smiled a single smile but sat and watched the picture through to the last good night kiss which the monkey gave his trainer.

Picking up her basket the negro mammy waddled out of the theater muttering to herself. As she passed manager W. H. R. which she said to herself: "De clah" to goodness. Dat monkey sho is folks."

Year end clearing sale now on at Springer's.

Dr. Roller

By WALT MASON

When Dr. Roller's in condition it's hard to find a learned physician, much huskier than he; he's thrown a Greek, a Turkish wonder, he turned a Russian giant under, and slew a Cherokee. He's second in the great procession; with pride the medical profession regards his efforts high; he'd wear the champagne's lustrous laurel, with leaves of oak and bay and sorrel, if Gotch would go and die. Grim Fate! The doctor cannot charm her! Frank Gotch, the horny-handed farmer, is still his bugaboo; he spoils the Bulgars and the Russians, and puts the lid upon the Prussians, and makes the Poles skidoo; and when he seems without a rival—an illustration of survival of him who is most fit—from Iowa there comes a granger, with perfume of the moat and manger, who gently whispers "Nii!" If Gotch is ever sick and dying, and other doctors, after trying to save, have made a botch; I'd give a large round wound dollar if he would call in Dr. Roller; how he'd prescribe for Gotch!

"Bob's" Sons Eager To Avenge "Pop" By Whipping "Bill" Lang

"BOB" FITZSIMMONS JR. AND "BEAUTY"

'Australian Fighter' Will Find Lads On Trial Six and Eight Years Hence.

There is just one thing for "Bert" Lang, the Australian pugilist, to do now, and that is to retire. He may have been able to get the best of "Bob" Fitzsimmons, now that the former heavyweight champion has grown too old to uphold his reputation, but he will not be able to get away from "Bob" Jr., six years hence, and even if he did he would have Martin Fitzsimmons camping on his trail a couple of years after that. By then Lang will be as passe as "Bob" now is.

"Bob" Jr., and Martin are the sons of the former ring general of the heavyweight class. They have a sister, but, while Rosalie, who is now 10, is a very well developed and strong young person, she cannot think of revenging her father, as the boys have planned, and therefore she will be lucky if she is allowed to be a spectator at the battle when either one of the youthful sons of the former champion retrieves the honors of the Fitzsimmons family and makes Lang run a few miles through the Australian bush to get away from them.

The three children of the former champion live with their aunt, Mrs. Jane Gifford, and their cousin, Marion Hinkey, in Fitzsimmons's country place, just outside of Dunellen, N. J. The farm consists of 60 acres, and is ideally situated in the foothills of the Watchung mountains. Mrs. Fitzsimmons is in Australia with her husband, but she will probably return before her husband does.

Council of War.
When a correspondent of The Herald called at the Fitzsimmons home the two sons of the former champion and their cousin were holding a council of war in the sitting room, where the family's Christmas tree was still resplendent. The council, however, was not on pugilism or anything of that sort. It was on how was the best way of making Nuke, the Great Dane pup, behave himself and not act like a pup all his life. Nuke is the largest, but by no means the best, of the Fitzsimmons dogs, for when a person starts going near the house, the barns, or the chicken coops, the buildings seem to fairly rain dogs of all kinds, and all are of the kind that want to make friends and play with visitors.

Neither "Bob" Jr., nor his brother, Martin, care as much about pugilism as they do about livestock. The former is now in his 14th year, while his brother is 10. "I guess," observed Bob, when questioned about what he thought of his father being beaten by Lang, "that it is about up to me to try my hand at training. I'm 14 now, and in six years I'll be 20. I guess by that time I'll be able to whip Lang, and, although I don't like fighting, still I'm going to show him that he isn't as much of a fighter as he thinks. Pop's too old to fight now, but he's the best pop in the world, just the same."

"You are not the whole thing in this family," observed Martin, the more youthful brother. "I guess if there is anyone going to take care of Lang it'll be me. I may be little, but I weigh 90 pounds already, and I'm growing faster than any other boy I know. I guess I'm the one who will do all the 'teaching' that Lang is going to get." Marion Hinkey, their cousin, remained very silent on the subject of Lang and Australia, but later he bashfully admitted that he had thought of going to Australia himself and teaching the heavyweight that his uncle was not the

GUY GARNER HEADS LIST OF WINNING JUAREZ JOCKEYS

Guy Garner continues to lead the jockeys at the Juarez track, having the largest percentage of winnings of any of the crack jockeys that are riding across the river. Guy has his closest competitor, McCahey, with Molesworth and Benscote as coming favorites to beat this week. Pickens, Fisher and Strang were refused license last week because of their rough tactics and will not appear in sills again at the Juarez meeting. J. Wilson and Mondan were also disciplined and Wilson's mounts were restricted to those of his father's stable for which he is riding. George Archibald, who has his ankle injured when Harry Mann threw a stiff, will be back in the saddle this week after a month's vacation.

MANAGER OF CANANEA BASEBALL CLUB IN EL PASO

Manager Dugan, of the 1909 Cananea team, is here today on his way to Cananea from the east, where he went to spend Christmas. Dugan says Cananea is going to have a world beating baseball team next season and that while in the east he was doing a little quiet scouting for the copper camp club. Dugan is working for the four C's company.
